#critlib chat: feminist contributions in LIS

This #critlib chat is one of the class projects in Pratt SILS LIS 697 Gender and Intersectionality in LIS. The moderators and students are: Sarah (@fiiidget), Amy (@g_q_amy), Bianca (@ghislane), and Dinah (@dinahhandel). The course is taught by Jessica Hochman (@jessicahochman), and we've added our syllabus under the suggested readings for this chat. We've also been using the hashtag #LISgender to discuss our readings and related content on Twitter.
